

Troop 103
November 4-5, 2006

World Championship Punkin Chunkin; Cape Henlopen State Park

Sat., Nov. 4, 2006:

7:00 a.m. - Meet at St. Joseph's in Hanover, PA;
Drive to World Championship Punkin Chunkin in Millsboro, Delaware ($7 admission per person, $2 parking fee per vehicle);
Afternoon - Observe air powered, human powered & centrifugal Catapults/Trebuchets in action; sack lunch;
Late Afternoon - Drive to camp (Cape Henlopen State Park in Lewes, Delaware - Campsite Nos. 80 & 81);
Dinner in Camp;
8-9 pm - Full Moon Hike ($2 per person; organized by Cape Henlopen State Park; guided walk through moonlit landscape of Cape Henlopen to discover the nocturnal life of the park including deer & night birds);
Camp overnight at Cape Henlopen State Park.

Sun., Nov. 5, 2006

7 a.m. - Mass at St. Jude the Apostle Church in Lewes, Delaware.
8:30 a.m. - Breakfast in camp;
10-11 a.m. - Cranberry Canter (organized by Cape Henlopen State Park; take a brisk walk along the Pinelands Trail and experience the beauty of a maritime forest. Learn why cranberry bogs are a part of the history of Lewes and how Cape Henlopen became a state park)
— Free Time — Check out Biden Environmental Center / Walk the beach / fly kites / play football / play frisbee / etc....
12-1 p.m. - lunch; leave for home
4 p.m. - estimated return time (St. Joseph's in Hanover, PA)

Emergency Contact Phone Numbers:

Jeffrey Rosenzweig (717) 968-6533 (c)
Stephanie O'Brien (717) 968-6697 (c)
Cape Henlopen State Park: (302) 645-8983 (Park Office);
(302) 644-5005 (Biden Environmental Training Center);
(302) 645-6852 (Nature Center)

Nearby Hospitals: Beebe Medical CenterMilford Memorial Hospital
424 Savannah Road 21 West Clarke Ave.
Lewes, Delaware 19958 Milford, Delaware 19963
(302) 645-3300 (302) 422-3311

Nanticoke Memorial Hospital
801 Middleford Rd.
Seaford, Delaware 19973
(302) 629-6611